Meantime Chief Wade, of the distriet police, had telephoned to police headquarters and at 3,20 o'clock fifty blue coats marched up Beacon street, and taking the side entrance to the state house, made a clean swath through the mob straight to Doric hall, where they halted to await the orders of Chief Wade,

These orders were not slow in coming. They were to clear the state house and grounds of intruders who at that time had become a hissing, bowling mob. This was the work of but a moment. Before the blue coats the mob melted away out of the hall, down the broad steps and onto Beach street. There were some shouts of "Kill the police!" but the shouters took good care to keep in the background. The crowd gradually made its way back to the common, and the court house once more resumed its accustomed quiet. Representative Hellon presented the petition of Morrison L Swift to the legislature this afternoon, asking for their attention to the condition of the nnemployed. The petition called attention to the fact that farms and factories are still in existence, and asked that the unemployed be given work therein. The house of representatives thereupon appointed a committee to consider the question and shortly

Located at Washington. St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 20 -T. B. Mc-Guire, secretary of the Knights of Labor, will leave today for Des Moines, Is., where he will attend the meeting of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor. When asked this morning if anything of importance would come before the board at this meeting, Mr. McGuire said: "Well, if you consider the changing of the headquarters of the Knights of Labor from Philadelphia to Washington, yes
"We have been contemplating this change for several months, and I think that the beard will not finally and in favor of the change at this meeting. If so, the change will be made at
